- 3) They must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the efficient performance of the duties.

18. MODE OF SELECTION:

Candidates fulfilling the prescribed qualifications will be required to undergo a Written Examination. The Commission holds full discretion to fix minimum qualifying marks component-wise in Paper-I and II for different categories, i.e., UR, SC, ST, OBC, and ExS. Candidates declared qualified in Paper-I would be required to appear for the PET, Eligibility Tests and Medical Examination and those who qualify in PET, Eligibility Tests and Medical Examination as well as in the Written Examination will be called for Interview/Personality Test. Final Select List would be prepared on All-India basis in order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks (marks of Written Examination and Interview) finally awarded to each candidate as given under this scheme of recruitment and in that order so many candidates as are found by the Commission to be qualified at the Examination shall be recommended for appointment up to the number of unreserved vacancies.

If there are candidates having the same aggregate marks in the written examination plus interview then the tie is resolved by the Commission by referring to the total marks in the written examination, i.e., a candidate having more marks in the written examination gets preference over the candidates having the same aggregate marks. If the tie still persists, then the marks in the paper where the first cut-off is given is referred to, i.e., a candidate having more marks in this paper is given preference. This procedure is followed by Date of Birth, i.e., the candidate older in age gets preference. Lastly, if the tie still persists, the tie is finally resolved by referring to the alphabetical order of names, i.e., a candidate whose name begins with the alphabet which comes first in the alphabetical order gets preference.

Provided that SC, ST and OBC candidates who are selected on their own merit without relaxed standards, alongwith candidates belonging to other communities, will not be adjusted against the reserved share of vacancies. The reserved vacancies will be filled up separately from amongst the eligible SCs, STs and OBCs which will, thus, comprise of SC, ST and OBC candidates who are lower in merit than the last general candidate on merit list of unreserved category but otherwise found suitable for appointment even by relaxed standard.

An Ex-Serviceman candidate who qualifies on the basis of relaxed standards, viz., age limit, experience, qualifications, permitted number of chances in written examination, extended zone of consideration, etc. is to be counted against reserved vacancies and not against general vacancies subject to fitness of such candidates for selection. Such candidates may also be recommended at the relaxed standards to the extent the number of vacancies reserved for them, to make up for the deficiency in the reserved quota, irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit. However, deduction from the age of Ex-Servicemen is permissible against the reserved or unreserved posts and such exemption cannot be termed as relaxed standards in regard to age.

Success in the examination confers no right of appointment unless Government is satisfied after such enquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the service/post.

The selection process, in detail, would include the following:-

- (i) Written examination The written examination will be comprising of the following two papers for which two separate answer sheets will be provided before commencement of the examination:-

Paper-II

1 Hour Paper of 100 marks –

General English (a) Language Comprehension and (b) Communication/Writing Skills. This paper will be of descriptive type.

(ii) Eligibility and Physical Efficiency (Endurance) tests(PET) Candidates, who qualify in Paper I of the written examination with reference to such minimum qualifying standard as may be fixed by the Commission, will be put through the Eligibility test as mentioned at para 17 (a), (b) & (c) of the Notice and the Physical Efficiency (Endurance) Test (PET) which will comprise of the following:

PETs DO NOT CARRY ANY MARKS BUT WILL BE OF QUALIFYING/ELIMINATION NATURE.

NOTE: Ex-Servicemen applying for recruitment to the post of Sub-Inspectors in CPOs are not required to undergo PET. However, all the Ex-Servicemen are required to pass the written test and fulfill the physical standards prescribed for direct recruits for recruitment as Sub-Inspectors in CPOs. They should also pass the medical standards prescribed for direct recruits for the post of Sub-Inspectors in CPOs.

Hospital or Dispensary. Those who are found fit in the medical examination and qualify in the written examination also will be required to appear in the Interview(Personality Test) of 100 marks. Candidates who are declared temporary unfit will be informed of the position. They will have to get the necessary treatment and appear before the Medical Board/ Review Medical Board within the stipulated time period fixed by the Commission.
